WHAT SAILOR MEN TALK OF

CARRYING CAPACITY OF THE JAP
S. S. RIOJUN-MARU.

Arrival of the Martha Davis—Miwera Leaves at 3 A. M. this Morning—W. G. Hall on Marine Railway.

Berger's band played the China off yesterday afternoon.
The Ke Au Hou will sail at 4 this afternoon for Lahaina.

The Diamond Head is discharging her cargo of coal at the New wharf.
The J. A. Cummins is on the boards to sail Monday morning for Waimanalo.

The Moi Wahine arrived this morning from Hamakua with a load of sugar.

In all probability the Spokane will get away tomorrow for Port Townsend.

The Miwera sailed at 3 o'clock this morning for Sydney, a matter of 3 hours late.

The Waialeale has taken the berth lately occupied by the W. G. Hall at Sorenson's wharf.

To arrive tomorrow morning: Nene, from Honolulu and Kukuibae; Mokoiki, from Molokai, Lanai and Lahaina.

Port Surveyor Stratemeyer is suffering with boils. He catches it to the boys, who he says "touch" him too often.

Three hundred pieces of water pipe and a 15 ton boiler are being shipped by the Ke Au Hou to Lahaina for the Pioneer mill.

The Riojun-Maru hauled alongside the Oceanic wharf this morning to discharge her cargo. She will sail at 12 o'clock noon tomorrow for Seattle.

The Martha Davis arrived late yesterday afternoon after a long passage of 32 days from San Francisco. She brought a general cargo aggregating 1200 tons.

The W. G. Hall went on the marine railway this morning. Work on her will be finished by next Tuesday, when she will come down and be placed on the boards for the Kauai run.

Nine hundred bags of Keawe beans will be taken up by the Inter Island boats during the coming week to Kauai. They are being shipped by Paul Isenberg and go to W. H. Rice at Lihue.

The Mauna Loa was about an hour late in getting away this morning. She was pressed to the last moment with freight offers for Maui and Hawaii. Her passenger list was very short.

The W. G. Irwin, now on her way from San Francisco to this port, has a general cargo, valued at $28,145. She has on deck twelve mules and two horses, being brought by California parties.

The Iwa took 150 cases of giant powder, brought by the Martha Davis this morning, and sailed with it for Kaena point. The material is needed there for blasting purposes, and as there is a dearth of powder in the city at present the contractors at Kaena point have been waiting for it.

The Riojun-Maru has the greatest carrying capacity of any steamer that has ever visited this port. She carries 6000 tons, has 45 feet and draws 29 feet of water docked. With these figures she tops the China by odds, and breaks the record for the Pacific. In other words she is a big travelling warehouse. As she lies by the Oceanic wharf her beam stands out by the Surveyor's office while her stern still clears the Inter Island berths.
